

International Graduates Career Planning

June 22, 2021
3:00 PM

Together in this virtual session learn what you need to know before you begin your job search in Canada. What skills do employers look for?

Employers look for employees who have both transferable (soft) skills and technical (hard) skills. For employers, transferable skills are as important as technical skills.

If you are interested, please email ywang@ncce1.org to sign up. The zoom webinar code and details will be emailed to confirm your spot.
