

Youth Employment Conversation Café

Join us on Friday January 14, 2022, for an informal conversation café hour where you will have an opportunity to ask questions and discuss topics related to - employment, education, careers, labour market information, small business, barriers, challenges, successes, and other employment related topics.

Through these conversations, you'll also have the opportunity to build and learn workplace communication skills; understand cultural differences, enhance your English conversation skills, improve your self-confidence; gain information on tools and resources, receive job leads and connections with employers, as well as relevant information about your job search journey.

NCCE Inc. will give you the support, employment coaching and employer connections you need to build your employability and entrepreneurial skills to reach your full potential.
