

HELLO PARENTS,

Welcome March Break! Every year, this week provides the opportunity for you and your family to spend time with one another and create memories to cherish. Throughout the break, you can strengthen your familial bonds while still building upon your child's skills by partaking in interactive and enriching activities together. This newsletter will serve as your March Break guide, and includes engaging experiences for your family to enjoy.

MARCH BREAK FAMILY ACTIVITIES

MARCH BREAK PHOTOGRAPHER

MATERIALS:

- Camera
- Paper
- Markers

DIRECTIONS:

- Using a camera, take pictures of yourself and your family members in different indoor and outdoor settings, throughout the March Break.
- Use the family pictures to make something creative. For example:
 - Create a special family tree or portrait collage.
 - Name all your family members in a group photograph and make up a story of the time when the photograph was taken.
 - Create a scrapbook of your March Break memories.
- Once complete, share your picture creation with your family.

DIY BOARD GAME

MATERIALS:

- Cardstock or construction paper
- Markers
- Game pieces (you may use some from a game you have, or make your own)
- Optional: dice

DIRECTIONS:

- Together as a family, decide on a theme and name for your board game.
- Brainstorm rules for your game, including how the game will be played. Write these instructions on a piece of paper.
- Begin designing the board of the game. You may want to sketch the board design on a piece of paper before making your final board.
- Ensure that you have appropriate cards and game pieces for the game.
- Once you are finished, invite your family to play and enjoy this unique board game together!
